The Way We Were

Editors note; the following appeared in the April /May Moose Leader written by Mike Rios /Director, Membership.

Sometimes, we reminisce often and become intoxicated by the successes we have enjoyed over the years. Some newer members may not completely understand, nor will they become engaged if we remain in the past. It's kind of like being around someone who always talks, but doesn't listen, often using "I" and "me" in their conversation. We can easily become disinterested in what they have to say. Things have changed, even the way we talk. Back in the olden days, we had a lot of moxie.

We'd put on our best bib and tucker and would straighten up and fly right. We'd go out at night and cut a rug, then hop into our jalopies and head toward Lover's Lane. Heavens to Betsy! Gee willikers! Jumping Jehosophat! Holy moly! We were in like Flynn and living the life of Riley and even a regular guy couldn't accuse us of being a knucklehead, nincompoop o ra pill. Not for all the tea in China! I'm not sure some of our newer members would understand the verbiage but they could be entertained by it.

Admittedly, I don't understand all the "new" phrases and abbreviations used to communicate by the younger generation. Since I was old enough to understand language, I've always heard about a "generation gap." Honestly, I believe I will continue to hear it until I die. It's not what something is; it's what we do about it! We just need to find something that is common to us all and enjoy it together. Hey, we all must eat, we like to be entertained and we enjoy human contact and interaction whether it's electronic or in person. Who doesn't like to help someone in need? It's our responsibility to reach out to those who can help. Our younger members have a FOMO (fear of missing out) and want to be involved and if you DBA (don't bother asking) how will they know? TBH (to be honest), what matters most is how we treat each other. Communication is not merely words, it's actions. If we care, it will show.

A Word from the Governor

WOW! What a trip. Convention is always so much fun. Spending time away from all of the regular responsibilities with good friends. Getting to catch up with the people you have met in the years past, and making new friends at every turn. As if being with friends would surely be enough, there is always being there when your friends reach so many milestone accomplishments. I would like to congratulate each and every one, but I am sure I would miss several. So, to all who have been blessed to be advanced to a higher degree or an appointment from Moose International, Congratulations! There is nothing quite like going on vacation with several thousand friends.

Join us August 16th- 19th for the Oklahoma/Southern Kansas Moose Association Annual Convention at the Wyndham Garden Hotel in Oklahoma

City. This is sure to be a fun and informative weekend. Hotel and convention registration information is available in the social quarters.

For all of our dart players, mark your calendars. OSKMA State Darts is September 7th-9th at the Duncan. I look forward to seeing everyone there. Get together and carpool, room together, whatever it takes. You don't want to miss it. Oh, and bring a friend. They will thank you for the great time.

In closing, I would have loved to have been on the shuttle bus when Bruce found out that a ritual staff from a little ol' lodge in Oklahoma finished in 1st Place. There is now another 50 or so people that are convinced he is absolutely crazy!

Until next month, I hope to see you at the lodge.

Moose Legion Update

Welcome to another hot August fellow Moose.

Hopefully you are ready for your kids and or grand kids to be back in school. Remember, a hot and dry Moose is a thirsty Moose. We have your drink ready for you and your friends. If you know of someone that needs a place to hang their hat and have a nice quiet environment to enjoy a cold beverage bring them to the Moose. At the Moose there is so much to do and to enjoy.

I wonder how many people are reading this? So, let me know and tell me. As you are Moose Legionaries I don't have to remind you "to do some good thing for someone each day".

Women of the Moose Update

Hello,

Hope everyone had a great time at the International Conference in July. I was not able to attend this year, but I am looking forward to attending in Las Vegas next year. Our State Conference - OSKMA - is in Oklahoma City the 3rd weekend of August. Our Chapter has been chosen to host the conference this year. It's going to be a fun weekend. Registration should be available soon.

Monday night meals will start again in September. See one of the officers if you would like to cook for one of the nights. Plan to come out and enjoy some nice meals with your Moose family.

Watch the newsletter and the Women of the Moose Chapter 2121 Facebook page for news of upcoming events. Also, attending our monthly meetings will keep you informed of all the upcoming events. And volunteer opportunities. Meetings are the 2nd and 4th Monday's of each month.

Please make time each week to come out and support the lodge over the summer. Hope to see everyone at the Lodge soon!

Respectfully,

Kelli Plante
